

PRINCE TUAN HAS NO FEAR. He Cannot Be Beheaded Be- cause of His Following.

MR. CONGER IS OPPOSED TO IT.

Washington, Jan. 30.—While vigorously opposing the execution of Prince Tuan and Gen. Fu Hsiang, Mr. Conger, with the approval of the United States, has agreed to the decapitation of four ringleaders in the Chinese outrages of last summer.

Two of these are Prince Chwang, a deputy commissioner in chief of the Boxers, and Yu Hsien, who was removed by the Empress dowager from the post of governor of Shan Si.

It is understood that before agreeing to the execution of the four officials, the authorities ascertained that the Chinese government would be able to comply with such a demand. The case of Gen. Tung Fu Hsiang is different.

Surrounded by an army devoted to him, he would resist an attempt to execute him and civil war would be precipitated. The strong position of Prince Tuan also makes decapitation impossible in his case.

Mr. Conger has cabled stating that he was strongly opposing the execution of the Chinese general and other leaders whom the Chinese government could not reach.

In acquiescing in the execution of the minor officials the United States yields to the wishes of Great Britain and Germany, with whom Russia and Japan had agreed. The United States was alone in opposition and it was deemed important in order to obtain concessions in the future to acquiesce in this matter.

It is learned that the foreign ministers in Peking have appointed a commission which is to name the provincial and municipal officials guilty of aiding the Boxer rebellion, who shall be punished with death or a lesser punishment; to determine the districts in which the Boxers were especially active, in which official examinations shall be suspended, and to devise the methods to be adopted to interdict the importation of arms as well as materials employed in their manufacture, etc.

Renewed assurances have been given to the authorities that Russia has not made any separate arrangement with China regarding Manchuria and that she does not contemplate pursuing a policy different from that enunciated in her note of Aug. 25.

Here's a Job Declined.

Jefferson City, Jan. 26.—S. J. Buckner of Mexico, who was appointed yesterday by the secretary of state, Sam Cook, state bank examiner to succeed M. A. Arnold, resigned, notified Mr. Cook this morning that he could not accept the appointment on account of business interests in his banking business in Mexico, which claim his personal attention. The resignation of Mr. Arnold takes effect Feb. 10, and Secretary Cook announced this morning that he would appoint a man from Southeast Missouri to fill that vacancy, and that persons from other parts of the state need not apply. Mr. Cook reached this conclusion from the fact that southeast Missouri has not been represented on the bank examining board since its establishment in the department of state. It has not yet been announced who will get the plum.

Seibert to Succeed Arnold.

Jefferson City, Mo., Jan. 31.—Secretary of State Sam B. Cook today appointed D. B. Seibert of Jackson, Cape Girardeau county, bank examiner in place of Morris A. Arnold, whose resignation takes effect February 10. Mr. Seibert is a banker of much experience, having been cashier of one of the leading banks of Jackson for a number of years. He was extensively indorsed for the position by bankers and leading citizens of southeast Missouri. This is the first bank examiner ever appointed from that section of the state.

Insanity in Her Family.

Nevada, Mo., Jan. 25.—The records of state lunatic asylum No. 3, at this place disclose the fact that the mother of Mrs. Carrie Nation, the Kansas saloon wrecker, who is causing such a rumpus in Kansas, was a patient in that institution from Aug. 2, 1890, till Sept. 24, 1893, when she died. Her name was Mrs. Mary Moore and she was sent from Belton, Cass county. The records of her case show also that her mother, brother and one sister had also been insane.

GROVER IS A FOX HUNTER.

The Ex-President Has Joined a Jersey Hunting Club and the Curious Wonder if He Will Ride or Walk to the Hounds.

Trenton, N. J., Jan. 31.—Grover Cleveland is now a full-fledged fox hunter. He has just been made an honorary member of the Mercer Fox Hunting Association.

A letter from Mr. Cleveland accepting the membership says he does not believe the acceptance of an honorary membership in the association "will endanger the life or limb of an old man."

Mr. Cleveland accordingly is a member of one of the jolliest organizations in New Jersey.

These fox hunts of the Mercer county association are interesting. There have been two so far. The last one took place early this week, and was participated in by a fox, 20 dogs and 50 members. Six huntmen were mounted; the others scrambled over the fields afoot.

Trenton people are looking forward to Mr. Cleveland's participation in a hunt. They are about equally divided in opinion whether Mr. Cleveland will elect to ride or be one of the hunters to scramble after the hounds afoot.

Much to the chagrin of these inquisitive persons, the secretary of the association has not announced the date of the next hunt.

In view of the many accidents that have overtaken intrepid fox hunters wonder is expressed whether Mr. Cleveland will be willing to take a five-barred gate or a stiff fence, or whether he will choose to go around the obstruction.

Citizens see Mr. Cleveland, in their mind's eye, clad in a pink coat and top boots astride a steed that quivers for hurdles.

MURDERED BY FOOTPADS.

Stranger is Killed Under Mysterious Circumstances at Seligman, Mo.

Cassville, Mo., Jan. 30.—A man by the name of Smith, foreman of the tunnel crew on the Eureka Springs railroad, was shot and instantly killed near the depot at Seligman, Mo., last night at about 7 o'clock. As Smith passed near the depot he was assailed by two men, while resisting one of them he was shot by the other. He walked a few yards and dropped dead. From a memorandum in his pocket it was ascertained that his relatives live in Pennsylvania.

The purpose of the assault was evidently robbery, as Smith was an entire stranger here, but, perhaps, fearing detection his assailants were scared away before finishing their work, as $40 was found on his person.

Morris Sparkman and Clay Lumpkins, two young men residing at Seligman, were arrested and placed in jail at Cassville, charged with the crime.

Dust to Dust Exemplified.

Portland, Me., Jan. 31.—The supreme bench of Maine has ruled that a person has no right to exhume the body of a relative buried in the lot of another person without the consent of the owner of the lot. Judgment for the plaintiff was rendered in the trespass suit of Lucy Pulsifer against E. C. Douglass of Androscoggin county. The defendant had buried his wife in the plaintiff's family lot and later exhumed the body unknown to the owner of the burial place. In his rescript on the case Chief Justice Wiswell said in part: "A dead body, after burial, becomes a part of the ground to which it has been committed, and an action of trespass may be maintained by the owner of the lot in possession against one who disturbs the grave and removes the body, so long at least as the cemetery continues to be used as a place of burial."

To Regulate the Practice of Medicine

Jefferson City, Jan. 31.—The senate committee on Eleemosynary Institutions will hold a public hearing next Tuesday on Senator Whaley's bills to regulate the practice of medicine in Missouri. One of these bills provides for a state board of examiners to pass on the qualifications of applicants to practice. The diploma is no longer to be considered prima facie evidence of qualification. The other measure is a companion to this bill, prohibiting any person from practicing without a license.

EXTRA SESSION SURE.

The President Has So Announced to Callers.

Washington, Jan. 30.—President McKinley said to several callers that the only question remaining undecided was whether he should issue the call for an extra session of Congress before or after his second term begins on March 4.

The action of the United States Supreme court in announcing that it would take a recess till Feb. 11, when it would meet, hand down decisions and adjourn for another two weeks, was construed to indicate an extra session of Congress.

The court usually takes but two weeks for recess in February. It is surmised that the long recess now is for the purpose of giving the justices a chance to devote their time to the study of the Porto Rico and Philippine cases that they may render the decisions by March 4.

Mr. McKinley said to one of his friends that an extra session would be necessary for the Philippine legislation, no matter what the decision of the supreme court might be.

DECLINED ROYAL INVITATION

Missouri Woman Once Refused to Dance With the Future King of Great Britain.

Columbia, Mo., Jan. 31.—Perhaps the only woman in the United States, or possibly anywhere else who ever declined the invitation of the former Prince of Wales, now King Edward VII of England, is Mrs. Mary Bishop Moore, wife of Dr. W. T. Moore, president of the Missouri Bible college of this city. Mrs. Moore was the daughter of Gov. R. M. Bishop of Ohio.

When the Prince of Wales made a visit to Cincinnati in 1860 Governor Bishop was mayor of that city. A ball was given at the Pike opera house for the Prince. Mayor Bishop and family were in a private box. The Prince came to the box and asked Miss Bishop to dance the first set with him, and she declined. Miss Bishop was then quite young, and gave as her reason the strict rules of her church against dancing, particularly in a public ball room.

COATES HOUSE BURNED.

Kansas City's Only First-Class Theater Destroyed.

Kansas City, Mo., Jan. 31.—The Coates opera house, the only first-class theater in Kansas City, caught fire just after the conclusion of the performance of Heart and Sword, by the Walker Whiteside company, tonight, and was destroyed.

Bernhardt and Cognell were to appear there next Monday night, and more than 100 people stood in line from 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon until 8 this morning in order to buy tickets. The house was entirely sold out, standing room and all, in two hours.

The losses aggregate $100,000. The fire started among the draperies on the stage and was probably caused by electric light wires.

The Walker-Whiteside Company, which opened a three nights' engagement at the Coates house to night, lost everything, scenery, costumes, and considerable personal baggage. The Coates house was built by Kersey Coates in 1871, and was owned by his estate. It was under the management of Woodward Burgess, of Omaha, who held it under a long term lease. It was remodeled a year ago, and, in spite of its age, was one of the finest theaters, from an interior standpoint, in the west. It was a syndicate house and played only the best attractions. It was fully insured.

After Taylor and Finley.

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 30.—When the senate convened today the Kentucky question was brought up again by Senator Stilwell, who introduced his resolution of yesterday in a slightly altered form, expressing the sentiment of the senate that Taylor and Finley, Kentucky refugees in Indiana, should be returned to Kentucky on a requisition by Gov. Beckham.

Stilwell conferred with some of the republican members and an agreement was reached by which President Gilbert was to hold the resolution in order and on motion of that republican member it was to be made special order for discussion one day next week.

AN OIL EXPERT'S VIEW.

Col. Tate of Baltimore, Talks of the Beaumont Find.

Beaumont, Texas, Jan. 31.—Col. James E. Tate, a capitalist and practical oil man, of Baltimore, Md., has arrived at Beaumont, and to-day made a critical examination of the crude oil from the Lucas gusher. He was very much surprised at what he found. "The papers have not been doing this oil justice," said he. "I find the product even more valuable than illuminating oil. The oil is possessed of a very heavy body, and closely resembles the West Virginia natural oil. At a nominal cost it can be utilized for lubricating purposes, and as such is the most valuable oil that could be found. As a lubricating oil it is worth $10 a barrel. This oil is worth millions to this country, and its value cannot long be concealed."

Several other prominent oil men who are disinterested in the oil are talking strongly along this line. They say there is a powerful influence at work here with the object of "knocking" this oil for speculative purposes. They say the oil has a lubricating body unequalled by any crude product found in the United States save West Virginia.

THREE ONE-ARMED COLONELS.

Unique Coincidence of a Meeting of Ex-Confederates in Jefferson City.

Jefferson City, Jan. 24.—There was a chance meeting of three ex-Confederate colonels in the office of State Treasurer Williams this morning that caused much comment at the capital. The three warriors were: Elijah Gates, who was state treasurer under Governor Phelps' administration, from 1877 to 1881; F. L. Pitts, who was treasurer under Stephens, and Col. Stephen Cooper. It was peculiar coincidence that all three showed the same scars of war, each having but one arm. All three were in the same brigade that was commanded by U. S. Senator Major General Cockrell. Gates and Pitts lost arms in the battle of Franklin, Tenn., and were wounded while fighting within forty feet of each other. Colonel Cooper lost an arm at Corinth, Miss. Colonel Gates was United States marshal under Cleveland's first administration.

"When I arrested my first prisoner in the name of the United States," said the ex-Confederate, "I advised him to refrain from attempting to resist the authority of the government. I tried to do it for four long years," I said "it was a hopeless task, and your experience will be the same as mine. The prisoner agreed with me and surrendered peacefully."

Treasurer Williams' office was visited by many during the day who were anxious to meet the three who lost arms fighting for the stars and bars, but who are now willing to fight for the stars and stripes.

The Best Food for Intellectual

Thought.

No man can vote intelligently unless he thinks intelligently. In this time of "war of wits" the greatest aid to intelligent thinking and the best food for intelligent thought is that newspaper which is great and best.

Important political issues are daily growing more important. An intelligent understanding of the policy of a nation or a great political party is something to be desired, and it is the duty of every citizen to thoroughly inform himself upon the leading topics of the day.

The Semi-Weekly Republic is the greatest and best of all newspapers. Its telegraphic cable news service extends that of any other paper. It prints the new news fully, without omissions, and its editorial is full of instructive and instructive occurrences both domestic and foreign, fully authenticated facts.

The policies of the great political parties now being formed and the candidates themselves are the best of special articles written by the best literary talent. Its beautiful half-tones illustrations have already made it famous and its quality and quantity will be preserved.

News features of absorbing interest are illustrated and enlarged upon in a manner equal to the high priced magazines. Events of current interest are set forth in entertaining and there is humor in its pages, too, and for the benefit of the ladies the latest Paris fashions are each week exquisitely displayed and described. The Republic's Sunday Magazine is a standard.

The subscription price of the Semi-Weekly Republic is $1 per year. The Republic Magazine is $1.50 per year. Both papers are being offered at the very low price of $1.00 per year. To secure this low rate both must be ordered and paid for in advance.
